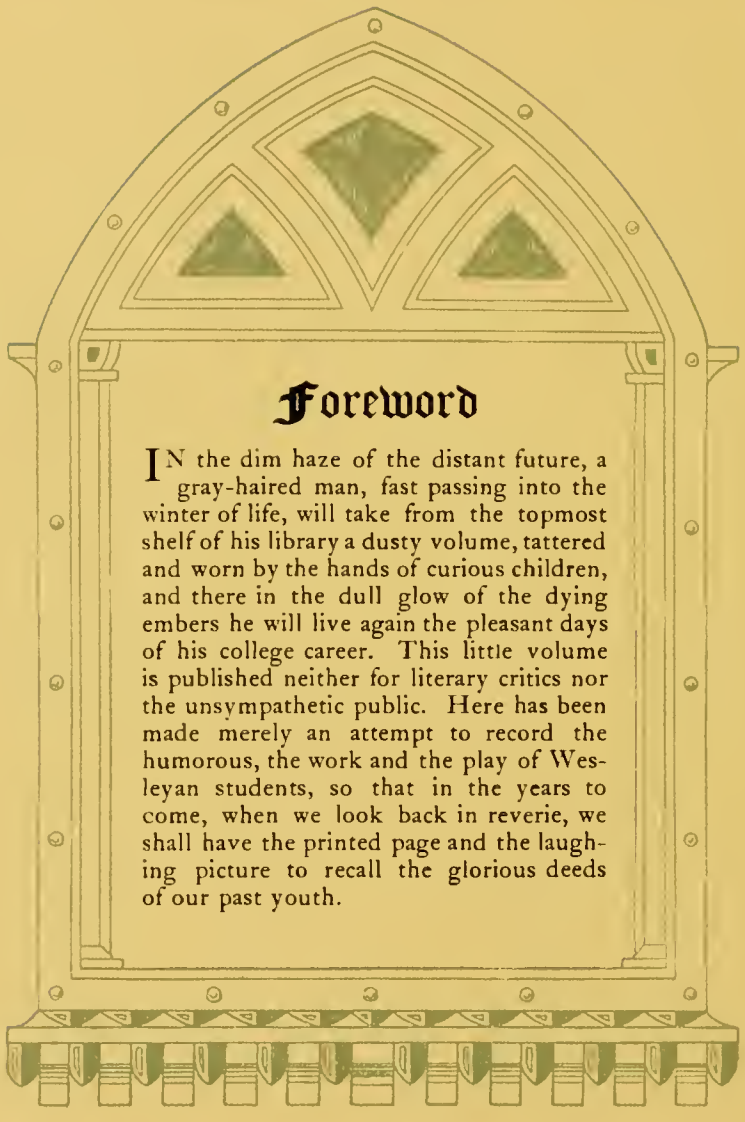
LIBRARY



Foreword

IN the dim haze of the distant future, a gray-haired man, fast passing into the winter of life, will take from the topmost shelf of his library a dusty volume, tattered and worn by the hands of curious children, and there in the dull glow of the dying embers he will live again the pleasant days of his college career. This little volume is published neither for literary critics nor the unsympathetic public. Here has been made merely an attempt to record the humorous, the work and the play of Wesleyan students, so that in the years to come, when we look back in reverie, we shall have the printed page and the laughing picture to recall the glorious deeds of our past youth.

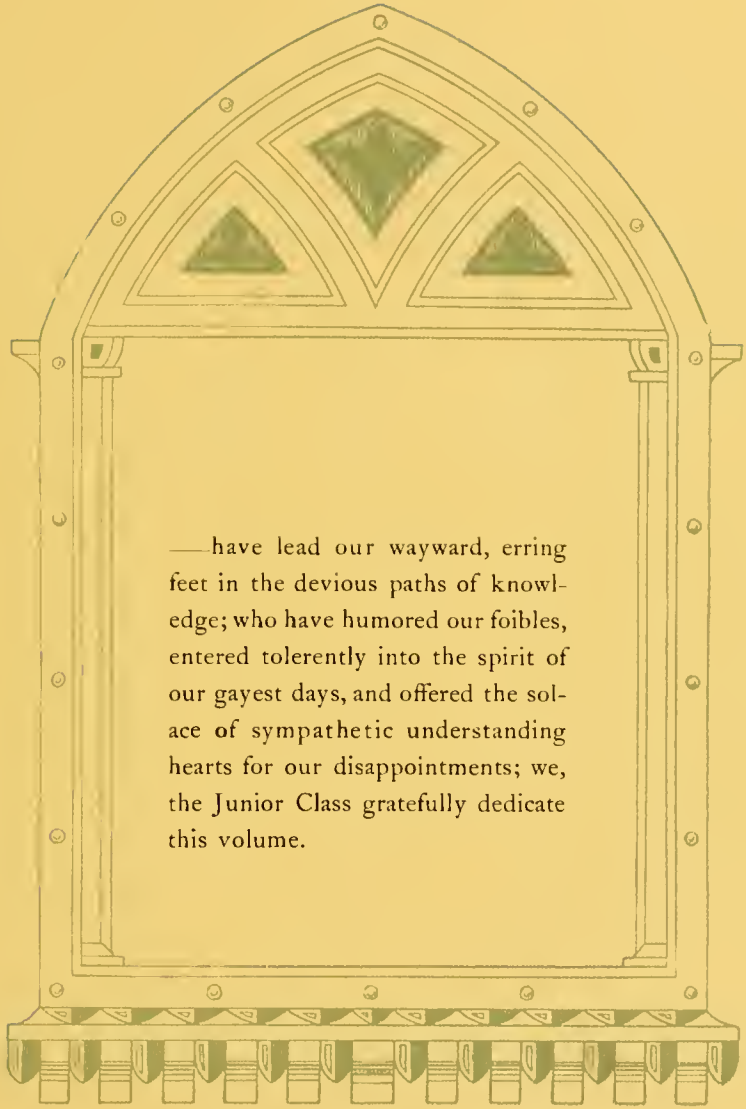
Dedication

To Our Beloved Faculty
Those Who—



—have lead our wayward, erring feet in the devious paths of knowledge; who have humored our foibles, entered tolerently into the spirit of our gayest days, and offered the solace of sympathetic understanding hearts for our disappointments; we, the Junior Class gratefully dedicate this volume.

ALMA MATER of the Mountains, West Virginia Wesleyan
At thy magic mystic fountains noblest dreams of life began,
We, thy children, bow before thee;
We, thy children, now adore thee,
And pledge God, Who watches o'er thee,
Thou shalt fill the ample measures of His plan.

Alma Mater, Queen of Learning, of the Orange and the Black,
At thy call to wisdom turning nought of worth thy sons shall lack.
For the teaching of thy sages,
With the writ of sacred pages,
Shall transmit the wealth of ages,
Down the future's ever-wider, brighter track.
Alma Mater of the Highlands, guardian of romantic years,

Thou dost bring us to the skylands, with thy faith dispel our fears,
Give us friendship waning never,
And a call to high endeavor,
And companionship forever,
With God who guides the courses of the spheres.
Alma Mater of the Mountains, West Virginia Wesleyan,

At thy magic mystic fountains noblest dreams of life began.
We, thy children, bow before thee;
We, thy children, now adore thee,
And pledge God, Who watches o'er thee,
Thou shalt fill the amble measures of His plan.

—WALLACE B. FLEMING.

Seniors

ELEANOR BENNETT, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chi Kappa Alpha Secretary; Haught Literary Society.

"It is her ways that lead into the heart."

Never too big for little things, yet always able to rise to the big things—Dodo is one of those beings who possess that rare combination. A sparkling wit that makes one laugh, a magnetic personality that charms, and a breadth and depth of mind that calls forth admiration — who else but Dodo?

CRAMER GIBSON, A. B.

KINGWOOD, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau, President; Student Council; Y. M. C. A.; President of Senior Class.

"The glass of fashion and the mould for form,
The observed of all observers."

Gibby, whose popularity is well deserved. He has very admirably fulfilled the offices of presidency of the X. A. T.'s the presidency of the Senior class, and showed his ability in dramatics. Only once in a blue moon is there created such a veritable Prince Charming as Gibby. We congratulate you and wish you much success.

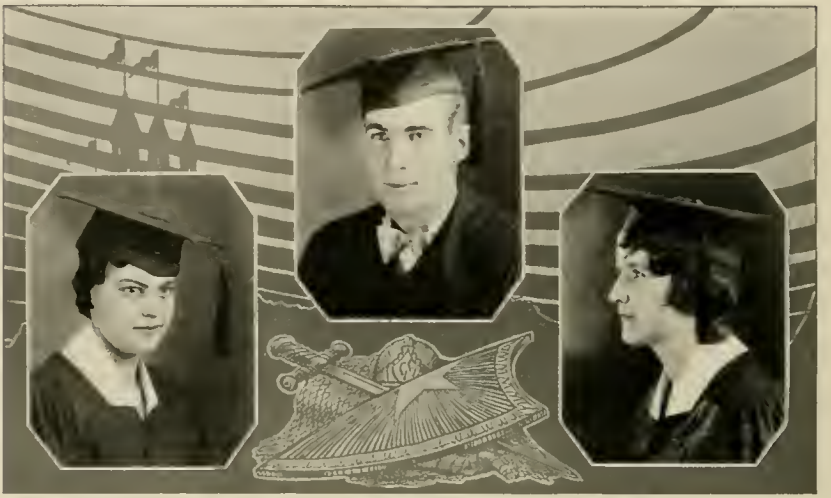
VIRGINIA LONG, A. B.

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Sigma Delta Chi, President; Y. W. C. A.; Haught Literary Society; Secretary Student Government '28, '29; Pharos Board of Control.

"Loveliness in the superlative, and friendship in the nth."

To Virginia run all of the restless girls with their tales of woe and their requests for special permissions. For she has the honor of being House President. She is perfectly lovely, you know, tall, stately, and attractive. Her charm will carry her far in making her future bright.



ANNE LORENTZ, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Delta Chi, Vice President; Pharos Staff; Wesleyan Choir; President Haught Literary Club; Y. W. C. A.

"True ease in writing comes from art; not chance,
As those move easiest who have learned to dance."

Anne is the literary light of the Senior class. Few students exist who can write so charmingly and still be so versatile. She is interested in dramatics and journalism. With her tactful, friendly nature and her natural talents, she is bound to succeed in any field.

PAUL WATSON, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Football '27, '28, '29, '30; Basketball '28, '29, '30; Benzene Ring; Business Manager Murmurmontis '30.

"Great manliness and love of sports."

Being interested in athletics Paul has been of great service to Wesleyan. He was co-captain of our football team and has been a hero both in football and in basketball. During his four years he has entered into various other activities and his popularity is well deserved. Paul is first of all an all-round good fellow.

GRACE MARIE WHITESCARVER, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Delta Chi; Class Secretary '30; Exchange Editor Pharos; Secretary and Treasurer Alpha Psi Omega, Haught Literary Society; Play hop.

"To see her is to know her;
To know her is to love her."

People with dramatic talent can afford to be little, artistic, and quaint. Grace Marie's dramatic ability has won for her much fame. She seems as much at home on the stage as elsewhere. Her scholastic standing is one to be proud of, and we prophecy an interesting future for such a delightful person.

CHRISTINE JACKSON, A. B.

JANE LEW, W. VA.

Chresto-Excelsior; Wesleyan Choir; Y. W. C. A.

"Dignity is the sweetness of womanhood."

Dignified, petite, lovable, and sweet. That's "Tiny". Quiet, but always ready for fun. A friend once, always a friend, and willing to show it by her actions. Christine leaves many soft memories of her presence, and many are those who will cherish their memories.

WAYMAN BENNETT, B.S.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau.

"The world well tried—the sweetest thing in life
Is the unclouded welcome of a wife."

Doc is interested in aviation and one of his highest ambitions is to fly. He is one fellow who seems to enjoy life. Friendly, good-natured, witty, and sometimes serious are a few of his outstanding characteristics. While reminiscing in the years to come, we will always think of Doc and Dodo as one of Wesleyans most popular couples.

EVELYN BRIGHT, A. B.

KEYSER, W. VA.

"Of all the arts, great music is the art
To raise the soul above all earthly storms."

By her mastery of the piano and organ, Evelyn proves to us that there is music in her soul. Faith, she would win our hearts through this talent were she not also the clever and charming person that she is.

KENT WARNER, B. S.

DUNBAR, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau, Football Manager '29.

"The hand that follows intellect can achieve."

As this gentleman silently treads his way to his daily duties anyone could see the mark of that famous characteristic shining through—steadiness. Though modest and without a show this fellow is destined to success.

FLORENCE HAUGHT, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Kappa Phi Omega, President; Y W. C. A.; Pharos Staff '28, '29; Murmurmontis '29; Student Council, Secretary '29; Haught Literary Society; News Editor of Pharos.

"She speaks, behaves and acts just as she ought."

Though "good sport" may be a hard phrase to define, it isn't hard to give an example of—not when "Fuzz" is around. If there is fun to be had, "Fuzz" will be in the midst of it. If there's work to be done "Fuzz" will do more than her share. If there's a friend to be had, "Fuzz" will be there waiting. If there's one co-ed who more than any other, seems to belong to Wesleyan, Fuzz is certainly she.

REX CROUSER, B. S.

Kappa Alpha; Chresto-Excelsior, Benzene Ring; Student Council.

"Honor lies in honest toil."

Rex has been a hard and willing worker. He has spent his college days in a most worthwhile way, and he has built up a strong foundation for his future career. May you always be successful, Rex.

ELIZABETH HULL, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart."

How can we better describe Elizabeth than to say she was one who diligently pursues her daily tasks cheerfully? We expect a lot from you, and we won't be disappointed.

ROBERT ALFRED, A. B.

WESTON, W. VA.

Kappa Alpha; Y. M. C. A., Mur-murmontis Editor '30; Class Vice President '30.

"The fire of God fills him. I never saw his like; there lives no greater leader."

A leader of men. Bob fits into Wesleyan College like a hand in a glove. With his executive ability, and his friendly ways, he has brilliant prospects for success. Everyone likes him, but, gee, why shouldn't they? You have our vote for being the most typical. Power to you, Bob.

ESTHER ANSELL, B. S.

CONNELSVILLE, PA.

Chi Kappa Alpha; Benzene Ring; Alpha Psi Omega, Y. W. C. A.

"An intellect of highest worth."

Everyone cannot be brilliant in mathematics, but there are not many whom Esther cannot help in the sphere of para-metric equations or transcen-dential functions. She is above par in all of her subjects and indeed seems to make a success of everything she attempts.

IRETA WATSON, A. B.

TUNNELTON, W. VA.

Kappa Phi Omega; Assistant News Editor Pharos.

"The ideal woman of a young man's dream."

Ireta has everything a Wesleyan co-ed should have—pep, poise, with personality, a fraternity pin, and Bert. Where Ireta goes Joy goes with her. Golden hair, blue eyes, and dimples suit her to a A. A true blue girl. Ireta, here's to your success and happiness.

ELBERT GOODWIN, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Kappa Alpha, President, Pharos Editor; Cheer Leader '29, '30; Vice President of Class '27; Pan Hellenic Council '30.

"There is no wisdom like frankness."

Bert has lived a full and successful life during his four years in Wesleyan. Cheer leading has been a great outlet for his school spirit. He has been known and admired for his frankness. One of Bert's greatest interests, aside from Ireta, was the Pharos. He was editor-in-chief, and a mighty good one, too.

NELL MORGAN, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Studied at Snow Froehlich School of Art, New York; Graduate of Booth Bay School of Art, Booth Bay Harbor, Maine; Associate Member of Chi Kappa Alpha.

Nineteen Thirty-two

JEAN PAISLEY, A. B.

GASSAWAY, W. VA.

Sigma Pi Delta; Chresto-Excelsior; Y. W. C. A.; Murmurmontis Staff '30; Student Government '30.

"A woman of sense, talks little and listens much."

One who is in our midst, does not talk much, but is able to absorb choice bits of wisdom and retain them for future use. Quiet, unobtrusive, always cheery, and smiling, Jean has woven her way tightly into the meshes of many of our hearts, there to stay as long as life itself.

BARRETT BERRY, B. S.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Kappa Alpha, Benzene Ring; Chemistry Assistant '29, '30, '31.

"Truth to say he is a conscientious man."

"Berry" is scientifically mended to the nth degree. An inborn chemist and phycist. Coupled with a conscientious desire to succeed will assure him a high place in his after-college life. Good luck and many wishes for your continued success.

NELLIE DRUMMOND, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Tallagewee.

"Secret and self-contained and solitary as an oyster."

Her interest is in service to others. So unassuming and retiring, yet she is a ready and willing helper. We know she will make a success in her after-college life.

PAUL WONNBERGER, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta, President.

"He has moved a little nearer
To the mastery of all music."

One who has been endowed with a real love for music and the ability to make it speak for him. His piano means more to him than life itself, and one can readily understand, after hearing him play, that quality which holds audiences spellbound. His dry humor and his ready smile have won for him a host of friends during his brief stay at Wesleyan.

LAURA RAYMER, A. B.

MOUNDSVILLE, W. VA.

Tallagewee, President, Y. W. C. A., President; Chresto-Excelsior; Wesleyan Choir.

"Endurance is the crowning quality,
And patience all the passion of great hearts."

Laura has been instrumental in making Y. W. C. A. a success in Wesleyan. Her ability and her willingness to work will assure her of success. Her ambition to serve in missionary fields is to be commended and we wish her happiness in her work.

GEORGE DIXON, B. S.

PRICE HILL, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Intra-Mural Basketball; Pharos Staff; Murmurmontis Staff '31; Benzene Ring. Student Manager Basketball.

"The word 'impossible' is not in my dictionary."

With his graduation Wesleyan will feel greatly the loss of his school spirit and good works. Although not an athlete he was very much interested in sports. How we eagerly read each week "From the Sidelines" by George. A lucky man is George, for he doesn't have to worry about losing his girl—he very wisely sealed it with a ring.

HANSFORD McCOURT,
A. B.

WEBSTER SPRINGS, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Football; Intra-Mural Basketball.

"From the crown of his head to the sole of his foot, he is all mirth."

His appreciation of the humor and gaiety of life, his athletic prowess, his mathematical talent, his mastery of light sarcasm and his ever cheerful disposition have assured Hanses' popularity on the campus and have placed him as one of the best known and best liked fellows at Wesleyan. And who can doubt his ability to "spin a yarn" after having heard about "them there Zooks"?

EVELYN LYONS, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Tallagewee.

"Ripe in wisdom was she."

Truly we can say that Evelyn is one of the most intelligent students on the campus. Call on her to solve a deep problem—a little time, and then you have the answer. She surely has made a mark here and we feel certain that she will make a greater one in the work awaiting for her.

BARTLETT L. LYONS,
A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"Earnest and steady endeavor will some day receive its reward."

He is a man who performs his duty whenever called upon. He is one who successfully proclaims the division between right and wrong, and knows how to use his common sense in all matters.

DONNA THOMAS, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chi Kappa Alpha; Wesleyan Choir, Y. W. C. A.

"A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market."

Donna enjoys music and finds much pleasure in singing. She is always able to find something to do, something to say, and something to enjoy. When it comes to doing things we feel she will never fail for lack of ability.

LELAND ARNOLD, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta; Y. M. C. A.

"There is no truer ruth obtainable
By man than comes of music."

Never faltering, he followed the right as it was given him to see the right, and was always true to the purpose. The world is waiting for you, and when it has found out your dependability you may be sure that it will recognize it.

HELEN GREEN, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Kappa Phi Omega, Vice President, Pharos Staff '30; Murmurmontis Staff '30; Haught Literary Society.

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

Always a worker, never a shirker. It has been said that no man is born into this world that his work is not born with him. Helen, you certainly do your work and more, too. A diligent, conscientious and lovable person.

GEORGE SERIG, A. B.

WHEELING, W. VA.

Wesleyan Choir, Leaders Club '30.

"There cannot be too much of a good thing."

Slow, easy going and of a tranquil nature, George accomplishes much. He is poetically inclined and in truth we may say his life is like unto the free, easy, flowing style of the verse he writes.

SARA DOWNEY, A. B.

WESTON, W. VA.

Pi Kappa Delta, Wesleyan Choir, Murmurmontis Staff '30; Chresto-Excelsior, Y. W. C. A.; President Student Government '30. Debate '29, '30.

"One with a kind and generous heart."

"Mom" is the girl to whom all the other girls run with joys and woes, and she can be depended on for the right word of advice or the proper understanding. "Mom" is a girl in a hundred and her true worth cannot be overestimated.

CARPER SMITH, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Benzene Ring, Intra-Mural Basketball.

"Some think the world is made for fun and frolic, and so do I."

"Abe" will long be remembered as the keeper of the "Bob Cat" the popular "hang out" of the college students. He is as full of pranks as it is possible to be, and seems to radiate a spirit of good fellowship that is indeed catching.

LYLE HART, B. S.

CLENDENNIN, W. VA.

Kappa Alpha; President Benzene Ring; Pharos Editor '30; Y. M. C. A.

"For my mind is proud and strong enough to be silent."

Lyle has entered into college activities with much enthusiasm. He is to be commended for his faithful work as Editor of the Pharos for last year. He is a man of his word and one who can be depended upon.

ETHEL HARTMAN, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chresto-Excelsior; Y. W. C. A.

"Kind words cost nothing, but are worth much."

Ethel has a well-balanced character which is wonderful and pleasing to everyone. She has a calming effect that no others possess. Her duties and tasks will be easier for her because she can face them with a calm and steady mind.

WILLIAM COPLEY, A. B.

LOGAN, W. VA.

"His life was formal. His action seemed ruled with a ruler."

The most that we can wish for William is that his life after he leaves college will be as successful as it was in college. And it is certain that our wishes will come true, because a man with such energy and perseverence cannot but succeed.

CARTER LINGER, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta; Football.

"His limbs were cast in manly mould,
For hardy sports, or contest bold."

Built along the sturdy lines of the ancient Vikings, Carter has used his brawn and muscle for the past four years for the good of Wesleyan's football team. His dauntless energy and prowess, his never failing good natured grin and his slow, easy drawl, make it impossible to forget his good work, especially on the football field. We predict an outstanding future for Carter.

ETHEL WAKEFIELD, A.B.

TERRA ALTA, W. VA.

Tallagewee; Y. W. C. A.

"Silence is the greatest ornament in a woman."

Ethel's motto is "Let your conscience be your guide". She is very conscientious and her work and good grades prove it. She has already said the words "I do"—may we give a toast to her happiness.

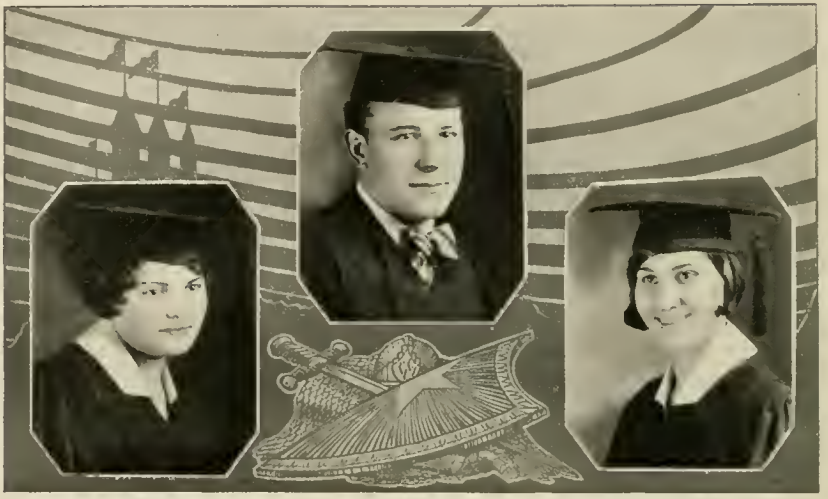
STERL SHRADER, B. S.

HUNTERSVILLE, W. VA.

Kappa Alpha; Treasurer Benzene Ring; Chresto-Excelsior; Secretary and Treasurer Y. M. C. A., Chemistry Instructor '29, '30.

"He that hath knoweledge spareth his words."

Sterl is another one of our chemists and seems to really enjoy delving into the depths of things chemically unknown. He is of a quiet nature, but surprises one now and then with his ready wit.



JEANICE NEFF, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Chi Kappa Alpha, Y. W. C. A.

"Not too serious, not too gay,
A good sport in every way."

Gay, compromising, with an upward lilt always in her voice, Jeanice can be serious or frivolous at her own command. Her smile, her cheery word and her helping hand extended to all those with whom she comes into contact make her a girl worth knowing and a friend worth having.

VORAS MEEKS, B. S.

LAPORTE, MINN.

Kappa Alpha; Pi Kappa Delta; Debate '27, '28, '29; Chresto- Excelsior, President '29; Class Treasurer '29.

"Charm us, orator, 'till the lion looks no larger than the cat."

What an orator we have in Voras! Not only is he a good orator, but also a fine debater. He has shown splendid ability in speech work and has helped Wesleyan win many debates. He is well prepared to make good and has already started up the ladder to success.

ZULA SHOMO DAVIS

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"Idleness has no place."

A true student from the standpoint of a student. Stumped at nothing, given the test of real knowledge. You have the glory of Wesleyan to back the successful career in store for you.

BEATRICE HYMES, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"God has given us tongues that we may say something pleasant to our fellowmen."

"Ambition" is a quiet person who never says much, except in class, when called upon for she always has her lesson. Yet she has that winning smile, which always beams forth at the right time. We know that Beatrice will have success in life's work.

HAROLD RHODES, B. S.

RIPLEY, W. VA.

Kappa Alpha; Football '27, '28, '29, '30; Benzene Ring; Basketball '28, '29; Student Council; Feature Editor of Pharos; Murmurmontis '29.

"None but himself can be his equal."

"Dutch", we are indebted to you! Your work and loyalty to the school merit our deepest appreciation. We have watched you fight for us; and we have enjoyed and profited by the mental ramblings of the "Turnpike". You will be famous some day, and we will say, "I knew him when—"

ALICE HULL, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"Wise to resolve, and patient to perform."

Alice will be remembered by faculty and student body alike, as an ardent worker. We will miss you in Wesleyan, and we know your untiring efforts will be rewarded.

CATHERINE PURDY, A.B.

MOUNDSVILLE, W. VA.

Haught Literary Society; Vice President Student Government.

"Joy danced in her dark eyes."

If there was ever one who breathed the true spirit of lasting friendship, it was Kate. True hearted, loyal, staunch, and ever serving, yet with a mischievous gleam in her eye that bespeaks of a wholehearted enjoyment of the fun at hand. A lovable girl with a magnetic personality.

WILBUR ANDERSON, B.S.

WESTON, W. VA.

Chi Alpha Tau; Y. M. C. A.

"And certainly he was a good fellow."

"For he's a jolly good fellow" was certainly written for a boy like Wilbur. "Andy" knows everybody and everybody knows "Andy". A cheery smile and a "wise crack" or two for everyone has made him one of the most popular and best liked fellows in the Senior class.

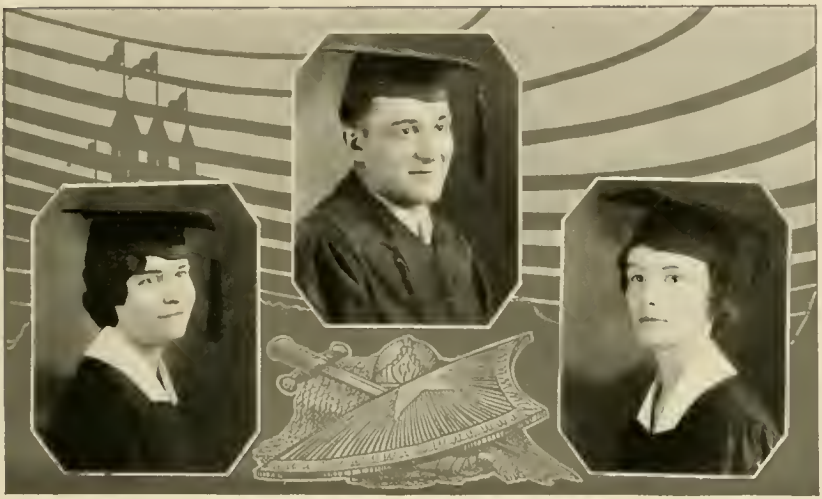
MARGARET BROOKS, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Sigma Delta Chi.

"What she wills to say or seems wisest, discreetest, best."

As a student Margaret ranks among the first; as a friend she is dependable; as a woman we all admire her. We wish for her the things in life that makes a life worth while.



RENA BLEIGH, A. B.

BURNSVILLE, W. VA.

Sigma Pi Delta; Y. W. C. A.; Haught Literary Society; Chresto-Excelsior; Wesleyan Choir.

"Her very silence and her patience
Speak to the people."

Quiet, studious and with a generosity that far exceeds her diminuitive size, Rena has carved her niche deep into the halls of Wesleyan. Her friends will not soon find another to take her place after Commencement, and the memory of her presence will linger on for many a year.

PETE SPATAFORE, B. S.

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta; Football '27, '28, '29, '30; Basketball; Track; Benzene Ring.

"The rules? I know but one—
To dash against mine enemy and to win."

Pete in another of Wesleyan's "big boys". He is big in size, big in school spirit, and big in his giving to his alma mater. As co-captain of the football team this year, he has established his reputation as a very likely man to succeed in many other things as he did in that position.

ORELLA LEONARD, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Kappa Phi Omega, Secretary; Y. W. C. A.; Pharos Staff '30, Play Shop; Haught Literary Society; Wesleyan Choir.

"Fun and frolic, glee was there,
The will to do, the soul to dare."

Although she is tiny, she has proved herself mighty. A pleasing personality, friendliness and brilliance, all qualities of one small girl. She reminds one of the old saying, "Good things are done up in small packages." We are sure Wesleyan can always be proud of you.

VIRGINIA BURNER, A. B.

SAGO, W. VA.

Play Shop; Chresto-Excelsior.

"The mildest manners and the gentlest heart."

If you are looking for a real true friend here is one. All great characters were friends, and why not make college a base for such a foundation. Dependability is a factor not to be overlooked in Virginia's make-up. Wesleyan will miss you when you graduate.

BETTY RUDOLPH, A. B.

ALIQUIPPA, PA.

Chi Kappa Alpha, President; Vice President '29, Secretary '28; Y. W. C. A. President '29; Treasurer Haught Literary Society; Society Editor Pharos; Wesleyan Choir, Murmurmontis Staff '30; Intra-Mural Board '30.

"A versatile girl with a host of friends."

Here is an outstanding personality, which combines the ability to do many things, the talent to do them all well. Her qualities of leadership in all respects, will be hard to replace, as she has been prominent in every phase of school life. Betty, you have been a winning acquaintance and loyal friend. We have great faith in what the future holds in store for you.

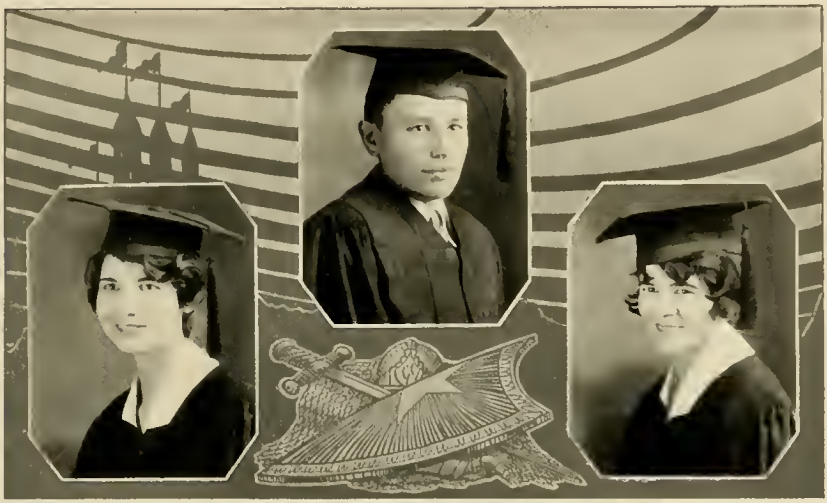
ISABEL SANCHEZ YOUNG, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

Kappa Phi Omega.

"Gentleness succeeds better than violence."

Isabel has kept a high standard as a student throughout her college career. It is a fair sign of the future she is destined to do well in life.



ALICE FOLSOM, A. B.

BUCKHANNON, W. VA.

"It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice."

We are sorry Alice didn't spend her first three college years with us, but in the short year she has been with us we have learned to appreciate her quietness, sincerity, and dependability. Our contact with her makes us believe the saying "Still water runs deep". We wish her all kinds of success in her future work.

WALTER FOLKS, A. B.

PICKENS, W. VA.

Sigma Eta Delta; Football Manager '28, '29, '30.

"There is no man anywhere so energetic."

"Chub" is a perfect dynamo when it comes to his power of accomplishing things—and as an athletic manager, he has no equal. While he is not so tall as some, his unbounded energy makes up for this lack of height.

GENTA WILSON, A. B.

PENNSBORO, W. VA.

Chi Kappa Alpha, Student Government; Haught Literary Society, Benzene Ring.

"A sweet disposition is the soul of success."

Genta has indeed a sweet disposition plus a great intellect, which, when added together, bring success. She has the unique ability of accomplishing many things and doing them all well. Her success as a teacher is certain, and we wish her luck.

CRITES, Guard

"Red" will lead the gridiron forces of Wesleyan next year. He has been a capable performer during his past two years on the varsity team.

BATTLES, Halfback

The "Blonde Blizzard" is "Gipper" on the grid. One of the greatest Bobcat stars of all time.

SPATTAFORE, Tackle

"Pete" co-captain, of the 1930 team, and stationed at left tackle, was the bulwark of strength. He will be missed next year.

HAGERDON, End

The long gaited red head was the bear on catching passes, and stood out on the defense. "Red" passes from our midst in June.

WATSON, End

Paul, co-captain, has performed well for the Bobcat squad in the four years he has been with us. His graduation in June leaves a vacancy hard to fill.

SHARP, Tackle

The big Marlington husky has one more year to play with the Bobcats, and he should be one of the outstanding tackles in 1931.

FORDYCE, Tackle

Wentz is a sturdy tackle that is coming into his own, and his continued improvement during his first two years marks him as a big star for next season.

BLONDIN, Guard

Tom is one of Wesleyan's best athletes. As a guard on the football team he has few peers in the tri-state district.

RHODES, Quarterback

Small, but mighty was "Dutch" for he gave all he had while he was in there. He will graduate in June.

EDMUNDSON, Center

"Tubby" is that fighting demon in the middle of the line. He has been one of Wesleyan's best since joining the Orange and Black.

BEVERIDGE, Fullback

"Bustling Bevo" is a human ball of dynamite that is going to creak enemy lines for the next two seasons.

McCUSKEY, Halfback

John is one of Wesleyan's fastest halfbacks. He was injured in mid-season which kept him out of several games.

McCOURT Guard

"Hans" was one of Coach Cebe Ross's chief utility linemen, and the front rank suffered no loss when he went into their game.

LEWIS, Tackle

"Loppy" is one of Wesleyan's husky linemen. We are expecting much from him in the next two seasons.

MAZZEI, Guard

Sam has been making much progress, and last year established himself as one of Wesleyan's real warriors.

WARDEN, Halfback

"Bull" has shown his mettle from the first season. He will be strong for the Bobcats' eleven for the next three seasons.

SIANDRU, Halfback

"Si" has been a strong defender of the Bobcat goal, but has been laid up a part of the season with a bad knee.

POST, Halfback

"Albie" was one of those "pony backs" that scampered over the opposition. He is fast, and a real ball toter.

WHOLF, Center and End

"Bud" is one of those capable boys who can play a little at any post. Coach Ross shifted him to end in mid-season and there he performed creditably for the Bobcats.

ART BACHTEL, Halfback

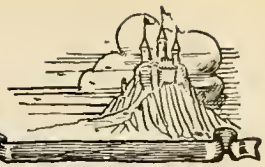
"Honey" will help tear up the foe again next season. He is a bearcat on the defense, and a "Wow" at ripping the line.

HALL, Halfback

"Joe" is the forward passing wizard, and displayed ability in his first year as a Bobcat athlete.

HOWARD BACHTEL, Halfback

"Pinky" was one of Wesleyan's best first-year aces. He is the third of the Bachtel regime to land here, and is expected to surpass the performances of his brothers before he is through.



Football Season, 1930

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN gridiron activities for the 1930 season again centered around one of the hardest schedules the Bobcats ever attempted, and the results of the season's play showed the Methodists winning four, dropping five, and tying two games. The immeasureable strength of Wesleyan opponents in every game was expressly evident, altho the Bobcat clan never failed to push the foe to the end.

SEPTEMBER 20—WESLEYAN 0 vs. BROADDUS 0 —BUCKHANNON

Wesleyan opened the season against Broaddus and the rather inexperienced troops of Coach Cebe Ross were held to a scoreless tie.

SEPTEMBER 27—WESLEYAN 0 vs. WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY 26
MORGANTOWN

West Virginia University's powerful, big Mountaineer team turned back our eleven 26 nothing at Mountaineer field, but only after the fighting Bobcats had shown their mettle.

OCTOBER 4—WESLEYAN 6 vs. NEW YORK UNIVERSITY 41—NEW YORK CITY

New York University, with another of their giant teams, swamped the Bobcats 41 to 6 at the Yankee Stadium, as Battles ripped of a 78-yard dash for Wesleyan's only score in the first few minutes of the game. Power and more power was the downfall of the stalwart sons of Wesleyan.

OCTOBER 10—WESLEYAN 12 vs. GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY 67—WASHINGTON

The Ross men played their first night grid contest at Griffith Stadium, Washington, D. C., and were overwhelmingly swamped by a fast Georgetown University eleven. It was a nightmare for the Methodists, but they never stopped fighting. Again Battles thrilled the fans with two dashes, of 76 and 88 yards for touchdowns.

OCTOBER 18—WESLEYAN 20 vs. GLENVILLE 0—BUCKHANNON

Our first victory of the season came over Glenville State on our own field. Cebe Ross's backfield swarmed over the Pioneers 20 to nothing.

OCTOBER 24—WESLEYAN 25 vs. BETHANY 0—WHEELING

In another after-dark engagement, Bethany College was Wesleyan's next triumphant March as the Bobcats trimmed the Bisons 25 to nothing at Wheeling.

NOVEMBER 1—WESLEYAN 14 vs. NAVY 37—ANNAPOLIS

"Navy Bill" Ingram's Naval Academy team was too much for the Bobcats in the next game, which was lost 37 to 14.

November 7—WESLEYAN 13 vs. SALEM 0—Clarksburg.

Salem College next paid toll to Wesleyan on the W. I. Stadium, Clarksburg, with a 13-nothing score.

November 15 —WESLEYAN 31 vs WAYNESBURG 13—Buckhannon

Waynesburg College, Wesleyan's Alumni Home Coming foe, was smothered under a 37-13 count on the home field, with Battles dashing off runs of 98, 97 and 68 yards for the score.

November 22—WESLEYAN 7 vs. DUQUESNE 12—Pittsburg

Duquesne University was barely able to nose out the snarling short tailed Bobcats at Forbes Field, Pittsburg. The Dukes were forced to come from behind in the last quarter to defeat the Methodists.

November 27—WESLEYAN 6 vs. MARSHALL 6—Huntington

Wesleyan ended the 1930 season with a 6-6 tie, with Marshall College, their annual Thanksgiving Day foe, at Huntington, playing in almost too severe weather for the great sport. Wesleyan came from behind to tie the count, and were on the way to another score when the game ended.

Coach Cebe Ross will have a wealth of material to begin the 1931 season, which will be captained by Freal "Red" Crites, guard, on the varsity eleven for the past two seasons.

The Wesleyan Pharos

THE PHAROS staff has endeavored throughout the year, as in the past, to closer approach the ideal in perfected collegiate journalism. The sound, conservative policies most appreciated by Pharos readers have been closely adhered to in the planning of each issue. Never before has the Pharos been managed on a more systematized basis. Six delegates were sent to Montgomery to attend a most successful convention of the Inter-Collegiate Press Association, sponsored by New River State College. At the convention were represented the leading college newspapers of the state.

The firm financial status of the Pharos has been creditably maintained throughout the year. Efficient management, a wide circulation, and sufficient advertising contributed to this business success. Many favorable comments have been received from the numerous alumni receiving the Pharos. The readers have expressed a keen interest in affairs at Wesleyan portrayed through the news columns and editorials. Several of the editorials were reprinted by one of the foremost newspapers in West Virginia.

Agnes Howard Hall Government

The Agnes Howard Hall Government is conducted by the girls of Agnes Howard Hall, and each year is becoming more successful. The work of the officers and the co-operation of the girls has shown their ability of student government and conducting their own affairs.

Student Council

Although the Student Council has been working effectively for several years, this year is the first time it has functioned according to the new plan of government. The Council consists of the President, Secretary-Treasurer, and eight directors. The directors are individually responsible for planning and doing the work that falls under their particular directorship.

The Council was successful this year in sponsoring the largest Home-Coming Wesleyan has ever had; the Student Handbook was published this year; the Lyceum Director, cooperating with a faculty committee, was able to secure some of the best entertainers and speakers on the platform. Many of the artists selected were native of West Virginia; more Wesleyan awards were given this year than any year previous; a school song and contest was conducted for the purpose of stimulating an interest along this line; the speaker for the Vocational Guidance program was not only interesting and entertaining, but also offered many suggestions.

Dramatics

Alpha Psi Omega

The first meeting of Alpha Rho cast of Alpha Psi Omega was held May 28, 1930, at which time eight experienced Wesleyan players were initiated into the organization. Alpha Psi Omega is one of the largest of the dramatic fraternities, having eighty-two casts in the colleges and universities of the United States and Canada. As a member of the Association of Speech Arts Fraternities of America membership in Alpha Psi Omega is both an honor and a professional asset.

The Play Shop

This marks the second year of the history of the Wesleyan Play Shop. It was organized in 1929, under the supervision of Prof. Lorin C. Staats, who was then head of the speech and dramatic department. Its first officers were: Edward Malsom, President; Mary Lindsey, Vice President, and Orella Leonard, Treasurer. Since then this organization, which consists of twenty-five members with strong dramatic ability, has grown considerably.

During the term of 1930-31 stress has been placed upon the finer side of dramatic art, directing, costuming and casting, besides the important phases of producing, stage management and financing a production.

Under the present administration of the "Play Shop", a new constitution has been formulated, with a view to the stimulation of a school-wide dramatic interest, under the direction of Prof. B. W. Folsom. The Play Shop has progressed wonderfully due to the ardent interest and enthusiasm of its president, Bryan Kelley.

At the time this book goes to press, "The Swan" a romantic comedy in three acts, is the only major play to have been produced this year. This play was said to be one of the best plays ever produced in Wesleyan, due to the elaborate costuming and untiring efforts of the cast. Several one-act plays have been presented. Among them "Jazz and Minuet", which was entered in the state dramatic contest. "Grandma Pulls the Strings", a one-act play, directed by Frances Scott, was presented Home Coming. "Drigs", under the direction of Effie Mae Merritt, won distinction.

This organization is proud of the new set of flats procured his year and used in "Jazz and Minuet" and "The Swan". Three one-act plays, and the commencement play will terminate a successful dramatic season, one unusual in its interest, both of the members and pledges.

Pi Kappa Delta

The West Virginia Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta was chartered on Wesleyan's campus in 1928, and has won distinction in several places. The debate team entered the season very successfully and held their part with teams from every part of the state. They ended the season at the Pi Kappa Delta convention, held at Farmville, Virginia, where Voras Meeks won third place in the oration contest, and James Hutchinson won third place in the extemporaneous speaking contest. Those completing the requirements and being taken into membership during the year were Jonothan Westfall and Robert Alfred.

Y. W. C. A.

The weekly meetings of the Y. W. C. A. afford an opportunity for the girls to gather and discuss topics of vital importance. The aim of this association is to develop higher spiritual ideas, to solve ethical problems and to create a lasting fellowship among the girls on the campus. The splendid co-operation of the Y. W. C. A. girls has shown a real spirit of sisterhood. It is the desire of every member to promote an interest in the association, to strengthen it and make it more successful.

Y. M. C. A.

The year 1931 has been another fruitful year for the Y. M. C. A. The greatest achievement this year was the sponsoring of an extended Lyceum Course which is sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. each year. At the Y. M. C. A. meetings the college man finds a place to discuss the practical problems of school life and to enjoy the fellowship of the members of every organization of the campus.

Benzene Ring

For nine years the Benzene Ring has been one of the strongest and most active organizations on the Wesleyan campus. The Benzene Ring is a part of the chemistry department and the various activities are carried out by the students themselves. The greatest purpose of the Benzene Ring is to bring the student into closer contact with chemical development and to create a greater interest in science.

This year the members will publish a magazine to show just what they have been doing, and to publish the latest things in modern science.

The Murmuramonkis

Grow old along with me!
The best is yet to be,
    The last of life, for which the first was made:
Our times are in his hand
Who saith, "A whole I planned,
    Youth shows but half; trust God: see all, nor be afraid!"

So, take and use thy work:
Amend what flaws may lurk,
    What strain o' the stuff, what warpings past the aid!
My times be in thy hand!
Perfect the cup as planned!
    Let age approve of youth, and death complete the same!

—Robert Browning.

Chi Kappa Alpha

The Chi Kappa Alpha Sorority was organized as an individual group late in 1925. Official recognition of the group as a local sorority was made in March, 1926. The Chi Kappas are fortunate in having Mrs. Judson as faculty advisor. We are grateful to her for the efficient manner in which she has helped to uphold the aims and ideals of the Sorority.

From the time of its organization, the Chi Kappas have endeavored to uphold the primary aim, that of being a democratic, social organization, supporting the ideals of Wesleyan College.

The Last Peak

Rapturously we have climbed the steep
And devious paths that led us
Through cool murmuring forest depths,
The patchwork green of meadow,
And the grey mystery of rolling hills,
To this last mountain peak.
Like gypsies, gay and carefree,
We spent each endless day,
Sitting at night before our roaring fire,
Singing, laughing.

The last peak is reached; back we gaze
Over the tell-tale, wandering trail,
Seeing the paths sometimes so clear and well-defined,
Yet noting each by-way that
Tricked us, so coaxingly, so sweetly.
Twilight, with all its glory of rose and gold,
Falls on the last peak.
And with ecstasy as yet half-understood,
We glimpse ahead, tall mountain ranges
Waiting, calling.

—Anne Lorentz.

West Virginia Wesleyan

School of mine, the spirit's thine, that guides me always.
As chart and compass guide the pilot's way.
Dear old classrooms, rustic walls, and stately hallways.
Where I, with comrades mingled yesterday.
Hail! All Hail! my Alma Mater of the mountains.
Thy sons and daughters praises sing to thee,
High thy colors float o'er hills and valleys,
Come, join the song with me.

Chorus

West Virginia, West Virginia,
West Virginia Wesleyan hails to you.
Lights of learning, ever burning,
Where hills and fields are green, and skies are blue.
Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen,
Come join we grads and sing the chorus through.
Alma Mater; Alma Mater;
Though far away from you we'll e'er be true.

Back to thee in reverie, my thoughts go drifting,
Like thy mountain streams that ever seaward flow,
And I hear a ringing cheer while hands are lifting,
Thy banners where the sunlit breezes blow.
When the campus gleams from fires brightly burning,
And night's deep shadows in thy archways throng.
In my dreams I see my pals and classmates,
And hear the College Song.

CHORUS

We renew our vows unto the Black and Orange,
And with loyalty to thee we'll carry on.
Golden years of history cheer us ever onward,
To add fresh laurels to the conquests won.
When the band plays, "Oh, It's Wesleyan Forever",
And the throng, ten thousand strong, take up the strain,
Victory, to thee, my Alma Mater,
Fight on and win the game.

CHORUS

All together, yell together,
West Virginia Wesleyan over all.
Through the foe's line, o'er the goal line,
See our fighting gridmen pass and rush the ball.
It's a touchdown, mark the score down—
To your feet, and give the Bobcat College Yell.
For the home team, it's our own team—
Now it's time for us to ring the College Bell.

—O. A. WATSON, '24.

Congratulations—

TO THE GRADUATES OF WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN!

Your completion of four years of hard, tedious work is a real achievement. The G. C. Murphy Company congratulates you and wishes you every success. Our belief is:

"The Foundation of Success is Service"

"He is paid most who serves best" is true in every field of endeavor. The size of a company does not alone determine its service to a community, but Service to a community alone determines the size of a company. Likewise the service an individual renders to his fellowmen will determine his place; the real measure of his success.

The G. C. Murphy Company is earnestly striving to be of service to the student body of West Virginia Wesleyan. Delightfully fresh Confections, Fine Quality Hosiery, Stationery Items, Ladies', Misses' Wear, Men's and Boys' Wear, and a multitude of other every-day necessities, all priced to suit the student's purse, is our every-day service.
